World Snow Day Fun at Arrowhead

CLAREMONT, NH--The 7th Annual World Snow Day was held at Arrowhead Recreation Area, which served as a host venue for the worldwide event, on Jan. 21. The Sleboggan Club of New England, under the leadership of Bill Herrick, aka Mr. Sleboggan, the inventor of the Sleboggan, organized the event. There were Sleboggan races with prizes and awards or you could just try out the Sleboggan on your own. A Sleboggan is a device that allows a person laying on a toboggan, and holding a Sleboggan with their hands, to steer a path down a snow-covered hill. The underside is fiberglassed and has three steel runners for positive control. A person controls speed by dragging their feet. It was invented by Herrick of Wilmot, NH. In addition to the Sleboggans, there was great tubing, skiing and ice skating at Arrowhead. Mr. Sleboggan, Bill Herrick, having a fun day. Kelty Stone, 7, from Unity, said that using the Sleboggan was "Really fun!" Mr. Sleboggan wins his heat!

Tri-State Reciprocal Snowmobile Weekend

CONCORD, NH--The New Hampshire-Vermont-Maine reciprocal snowmobile weekend is fast approaching, coming January 26-28 (Friday through Sunday). The tri-state event gives snowmobile enthusiasts a chance to explore new trails in northern New England.

"This weekend is one of the highlights of the winter for many resident and non-resident riders, especially with good riding reported in most of the state," said N.H. Fish and Game Captain Dave Walsh, who coordinates Snowmobile and Off Highway Recreational Vehicle enforcement, registration and safety education for New Hampshire.

Following are the ground rules for the weekend:

• All snowmobiles legally registered in New Hampshire will be able to operate in Vermont and Maine during the reciprocal weekend. All other Vermont and Maine snowmobile laws and rules must be complied with, including Vermont's mandatory liability insurance, safety education certification (if born after 7/1/1983), and youth operation requirements.

All snowmobiles legally registered to ride in Vermont and Maine will be able to operate on New Hampshire trails during the three-day open weekend. To be legally registered in Vermont, snowmobiles must display, pursuant to Vermont law, a valid Vermont Association of Snow Travelers, Inc. Trails Main (Continued on page B3)

Monarchs Melt Icemen, 10-4

MANCHESTER, NH-- The Manchester Monarchs bounced back in a big way, and erupted for six goals in the second period, on their way to a 10-4 trouncing of the Jacksonville Icemen on Sunday afternoon at SNHU Arena.

The Icemen got on the board early when Bobby MacIntyre scored his 8th goal of the season at 1:28 of the first period. Brendan Collier was on the left dot and found MacIntyre to the right of the goal, where the Icemen forward fired a quick one-timer past Monarchs goaltender, Branden Komm, to make it a 1-0 game.

The Monarchs answered back at 4:55 of the first period when Spencer Watson netted his 6th tally of the season to tie the game, 1-1.

Jordan LaVallee-Smotherman left the puck on the right hashmarks where Watson found the puck and sent a wrister over the glove of the Icemen goaltender, Colton Phinney.

The Monarchs extended their lead with a goal from LaVallee-Smotherman at 18:26 of the first period to make it a 2-1 game. In the neutral zone, Watson hit LaVallee-Smotherman with a pass crossing over the blue line for a breakaway, where he made a forehand-to-backhand move on Phinney to score his 20th goal of the season.

The Monarchs took a two-goal lead when Francois Beauchemin netted a shorthanded goal just :31 seconds into the second period. Beauchemin carried the puck from the neutral zone on a breakaway and beat Phinney's glove for his 2nd goal of the season, to make the game 3-1.

The Icemen cut their deficit in half when MacIntyre scored his second goal of the game while on the power play at 3:04 of the second period. Collier found MacIntyre in the low slot for a one-timer that beat Komm top-shelf for his 9th goal of the season.

The Monarchs took their two-goal lead back when Keegan Iverson potted his 3rd goal of the season at 7:35 of the second period, to make the score, 4-2. After receiving a pass from Zac Lynch in the neutral zone, Iverson went on a breakaway where he deked three times and finally wrapped the puck around the left leg of Phinney.

The Monarchs added to their lead with a power-play goal from Justin Agosta at 9:44 of the second period, to make it a 5-2 game. Agosta took a pass from Colton Saucerman at the right point, slid down to the top of the rightwing circle and sent a wrister past Phinney's stick for his 1st goal of the season.

Alexx Privitera added to the Manchester cushion when he scored his 1st goal of the season at 16:19 of the second period. LaVallee-Smotherman took a shot from the right point and Privitera found the rebound on the right goal line for a top-shelf goal past Phinney to extend the Monarchs lead to 6-2. The Monarchs continued to pour it on when Matt Schmalz scored his 12th goal of the season just :20 seconds after the Privitera tally. Sliding down to the right-wing circle, Eric Schurhamer found Schmalz crashing the net for a quick shot past the stick of Phinney, to make the score, 7-2.

The Monarchs made it an 8-2 game when Agosta scored his second goal of the night at 18:48 of the second period while on the power play. Schmalz hit Agosta with a pass where he took a shot from the middle of the blue line that was tipped by an Icemen defender over Phinney's right shoulder, for his 2nd goal of the season.

The Monarchs took a commanding 9-2 lead when Matt Marcinew scored his 8th goal of the season at 11:25 of the third period. Watson threw the puck to the front of the net where Marcinew picked it up and put a backhander up and over the stick of new Jacksonville goaltender, Austin Lotz.

The Monarchs made it a 10-2 game when Schmalz scored his second goal of the night at 12:12 of the third period. Beauchemin found Schmalz for a quick one-timer from the left circle that beat Lotz for his 13th tally of the season.

The Icemen made it a 10-3 game with a power-play goal from Dajon Mingo at 16:54 of the third period. Christopher Dienes found Mingo on the doorstep where he slid in a low goal past Komm for his 2nd goal of the season.

Tanner Eberle scored at 17:09 of the third period for the Icemen to close the score gap to 10-4. Eberle picked up the rebound from a Mingo shot, and sent a backhander low to Komm's left for his 13th goal of the season.

The Monarchs return to the ice when they visit the Wheeling Nailers on Jan. 27 (7:05 p.m.) at the WesBanco Arena.

Miracles

By Priscilla Hull

Every day we see a miracle. We just don't always recognize them. This weekend, in Claremont, NH, we experienced a miracle. A bunch of special high school kids and their advisors did perform a miracle. It is called "The Miracle Worker". It is an old, true story about Helen Keller. At a year and a half, Helen Keller was sick with some unknown disease which left her blind and deaf. For her first 18 months she could see and hear. After much searching, Helen's parents found a woman, Anne Sullivan, who eventually broke through Helen's dark, silent world. The rest is a well known story of a woman who was an activist for women's rights, labor rights, socialism and similar political and social rights.

If you attended the Stevens High production of "The Miracle Worker", you would have known all of this. The production was - well, I'm searching - excellent. The acting was and the sets were superior. The miracle that I'm describing is that a small town production was carried off so wonderfully by students and advisors. It was worthy of more accolades than I can find. The miracle of the weekend is that we have these talented people right here in Claremont.

Every day we find a miracle in our lives. Sometimes they are from the outside and sometimes they are from the inside. Sometimes we are aware of them and sometimes we aren't. Sometimes they are direct, in your face, and sometimes they are hidden away in a corner and come to us quietly in our sleep. However the miracles come to us, they mean a change is coming and while the change might not be big, we know it will be better.

There are more miracles waiting for us. We have a special talent at our school. The talent is to take some inexperienced young people and guide them through a production that brings something wonderful to enjoy.

"The only thing worse than being blind is having sight, but no vision."

Helen Keller

I've been to SHS productions before and this reinforces my intention to attend more in the future. I'll be there!

Calendar Of Events

AARP to Hold Valentine's Day Party Feb. 8

CLAREMONT, NH--The Claremont Area AARP Chapter met January 11 at The Earl Bourdon Centre to hear a presentation by Gary Merchant, a registered pharmacist. He touched on taking meds safely (prescription and over the counter), timing, cost, and everyone's need for a yearly review with your primary care provider or a pharmacist, due to seniors seeing many specialists who don't work with each other's medications and their interactions. Often these reviews are paid by insurance companies through Part D. This becomes especially important when meds are mail-ordered.

He talked about the opiate crisis. Ninety-two percent of all opiates worldwide are prescribed in the U.S. And he explained the difference between recreational and medicinal marijuana. He responded to many questions from the group.

Sara Bruckenier donated 22 knitted hats to members and Pete Toner donated $100 to the chapter. Door prize winners were Virginia Smith, Judy White and Jo Ann Johnson. Table snacks were provided by Tim and Faith La-Belle, and refreshments were donated by board members.

The next meeting will be a Valentine's Day party on February 8 at 1:00 p.m. at The Earl Bourdon Centre. It is a pot luck luncheon. If you did not sign up to bring a dish at the January meeting, call Kathy at 603-542-5500 to RSVP. There will be entertainment.

West Windsor Volunteer Fire Department: "Sixty Years of Answering the Call"

Brownsville Independence Day Celebration 2018

When they are not putting out fires and saving lives, the West Windsor Volunteer Fire Department is hanging lights on the town Christmas trees, delivering Santa in a fire engine to a town-wide carol sing or helping to keep safe the two-day Independence Day celebrations in town.

Could we possibly ask more from this dedicated group? Yes! Gentlemen and ladies, start your engines! Shine up those fire engines and parade them proudly down Brownsville Hartland Road on the Fourth of July 2018 because we will be celebrating our Fire Department's 60th year of answering the call!

The Brownsville Independence Day Celebration Committee has evolved. It has grown and learned from past leaders with great appreciation. Representatives from many organizations and groups in town were invited to a feasibility meeting last August. The group of approximately 20 volunteers explored what they thought the town might hope for regarding the 2018 Independence Day activities and what the realistic volunteer community involvement might be.

The end result is a group willing to recruit volunteers and lead. The committee is the Brownsville Independence Day Celebration Committee and consists of 4 main committees and multiple sub-committees. In all, this sizeable group has committed to create a memorable Independence Day Celebration in Brownsville for residents and visitors alike. They need your help, however.

The IDC Committee is pleased to announce the launch of the Independence Day Celebration Facebook and GoFundMe pages: https://www.facebook.com/IndependenceDayB rownsville/

When Driving in Ice or Snow, Please Take it Slow

CONCORD, NH--The New Hampshire State Police would like to take this opportunity to remind the motoring public of their responsibilities to slow down when driving in hazardous conditions, particularly in poor weather conditions. Driving on our roadways is a partnership, and the motoring public is our greatest partner. We all have a responsibility in helping to keep our roadways safe.

Winter weather has always been a challenge for drivers. We've even experienced cruisers being struck within this timeframe; all while Troopers were covering crashes. If highly visible vehicles are being stuck while off to the side of the roadway with their emergency lights activated, what could happen to someone driving a vehicle that is less visible? Please help us to keep our roadways safe as we travel throughout the State of New Hampshire.

The following law will help remind our greatest partner, the motoring public, of their responsibilities while operating a motor vehicle and helping to keep our roadways safe: RSA 265:37-a, Motorist Duties When Approaching Highway Emergencies (commonly referred to as the 'Move Over Law').

265:37-a Motorist Duties When Approaching Highway Emergencies. – When in or approaching an incident involving a fire, collision, disaster, or other emergency resulting in partial or complete blockage of a highway, or a location where a police officer has made a traffic stop, every driver other than the driver of an emergency response vehicle, shall:

I. Maintain a reduced speed.

II. Obey the directions of any authorized person directing traffic and of all applicable emergency signals and traffic control devices.

III. Vacate as soon as possible any lane wholly or partially blocked.

IV. Give a wide berth, without endangering oncoming traffic, to public safety personnel, any persons in the roadway, and stationary vehicles displaying blue, red, or amber emergency or warning lights. WHAT WE DO

Review: The Snowman

By Bernadette O'Leary

When first seeing the previews for The Snowman, I knew I had to see it. My daughter, age 17, and my son, age 12, also wanted to see it. The previews looked amazing, but the truth is, the movie itself didn't match the feel of the previews at all. However, that isn't necessarily a bad thing.

The Snowman wasn't at all what we expected. Whereas the previews made the movie out to be an action packed thriller from beginning to end, it was actually something quite different. In fact, it started out fairly slowly, with the exception of the tale of a young boy and his mother. In spite of the mostly slow beginning, once things picked up speed, it truly kept us guessing. My children and I are normally great at guessing "who dun it" and who's gonna "get it" next, but with this movie, we were wrong time and time again.

Although I would not have normally wanted my 12-year-old to watch this kind of movie, both he and my 17-year-old daughter thoroughly enjoyed The Snowman. They repeatedly exclaimed how great it was as it played, and I completely agreed.

Actor Michael Fassbender was remarkable in this film and all the supporting actors were equally amazing. This film, about a serial killer whose calling card is a snowman and the detective trying to catch him (or her, no spoilers here), was not the typical thriller that I was familiar with, but I am surprisingly glad. It was a unique and utterly fantastic ride. One factor as to whether or not you will enjoy this movie involves whether or not you enjoy independent or artistically themed movies. I felt The Snowman to be more along those lines in regard to its overall atmosphere. I enjoy independent ent, artsy films, but if you do not, this might not be the film for you. Finally, there are some triggers for anyone who has suffered domestic abuse or trauma in life.

I cannot rate this one easily. It was full of adult content, but it was very much an adult movie. So, for that reason, I will not discount for that. Likewise, even though I cannot recommend it as a family movie, I do highly recommend it for a more mature-minded audience from age 12 on up. It really is dependent on the maturity of the individual. I give The Snowman a 5, my highest rating.

Pick up The Snowman starring Michael Fassbender for an evening with the one you love. Pop the corn, put the kids to bed, snuggle up on the couch, and rent this movie on DVD today.

friend) of Claremont, stepchild Ronald "Ronny" Greenleaf of Vermont. Also many nieces, nephews and many good lifelong friends. She cherished them all.

She was raised during the Great Depression and learned at an early age that if you wanted something you had to earn it. She passed this wisdom to her children. She was only 12 when her dad died of a heart attack and 18 when her mom was run over by a driver who was on the wrong side of the road. She was educated in Claremont schools, including Stevens High School.

Reta worked in a factory in Detroit during the war, helping with the war effort. Back in Claremont she worked at the Army & Navy Store (later called Marson's), a laundry and eventually at Tampax, later called Tambrands and Proctor & Gamble where she was the laboratory supervisor until retirement. She worked there from June 1964 thru June 1986 and still had many friends she made there.

Reta loved to draw and paint, work in her flower garden, go camping, visit friends, swing on her glider, drink an occasional beer and spoil her pets. She enjoyed painting on small flat rocks or plastic eggs to give to the kids at the school where Jane (AKA "Miss Jane") works. Reta was a member of the Claremont Garden Club for many years, she was also a member of the American Legion. For years she volunteered at many events to help the Sullivan County Humane Society raise money. She spoke her mind and at times it got her in trouble. She was stopped for speeding a few times. When the policeman told her the speed limit was 35, she told him "Well it shouldn't be!"

A Celebration of Life was held on Saturday, and burial at Mountain View Cemetery will be later in the spring, the date to be announced.

In lieu of flowers please donate to: Sullivan County Humane Society, 14 Tremont Street, PO Box 111, Claremont, NH 03743, in memory of Reta Brodeur.
