

Robie, Fellows, Greenslit Win June 7 at Claremont

By Gary Dutton

CLAREMONT, N.H. – Dave Greenslit put his month-long string of bridesmaid finishes behind him, the Superman blew out 40 candles to win his fifth event of the season, and a rookie moved to the top of his division's points parade.

It all happened Friday, June 7, at Claremont Motorsports Park. On a night that featured lots of great last-lap passes, Brian Robie and Seth Melcher each took his second victory lap of the season, and Six-Shooter king Jeremy Blood, like Aaron Fellows, scored his fifth feature win in as many weeks.

Ben Poland grabbed the opening lead in the R.E. Hinkley Late Model Sportsman main event, bringing Ryan Bell and Robert Hagar with him, with Ricky Bly in hot pursuit. Bly roared up to third on lap five, then battling with Hagar and Aaron Fellows as Poland pulled away.

Bly dove low through turn one on the eleventh circuit, claiming the deuce spot and bringing Fellows with him. Fellows used the same spot four laps later to claim second, with Poland still 20 lengths ahead. By lap 23, the Croydon star was knocking at the door, again dropping low through one a lap later to take the lead and then drive away to earn his fifth victory in a row.

With Fellows celebrating his 40th birthday with another win, the 11-time track champ stayed perfect on the year. Poland finished his strong night's work in second, with Bly close behind.

Brian Robie led all the way to score his second Pepsi Sportsman Modified feature in as many weeks. Matt Kimball was strong all night in the deuce spot, claiming the runner-up hardware by only a foot, as he held off an all-out last lap charge by points leader Todd Patnode.

Chris Riendeau, coming off his first win of the summer a week earlier, led the first ten go-rounds of the Casella Street Stock, holding off first Cody Schoolcraft and then Dave Greenslit until Greenslit inched past him on lap 11 after ten laps of wheel-to-wheel battle.

Greenslit, strong all season, would not be denied on this night, earning his first victory lap of the summer ahead of Jimmy Renfrew Jr. and Riendeau. At press time, this finish was still unofficial.

Jim Carley led the first 13 laps of the Pure Stock main event, losing a huge lead to a lap-seven caution and then watching Seth Melcher take control eight laps later. The pass of the night, though, belonged to Unity rookie Bruce Adams, whose last-lap pass netted him the runner-up finish and, with it, the divisional points lead. Carley, strong all night, came home third.

In the Six-Shooters, it was business as usual for hometown pilot Jeremy Blood, who took control on lap three and then drove away to stay undefeated in 2019 feature racing. Paul Colburn, who earlier won his heat race, took the checkers in second, and Chris Colburn earned the three-spot.

In a special Claremont Karting Series 25-lapper, 13-year-old Camryn Curtis of sleepy Baltimore, VT was anything but, racing under a blanket with Colton Martin to score the win in the caution-free event. Martin, 10, of Goshen, finished in his shadow to earn the runner-up hardware, and Branden Morrie, of Chester, VT, came home third.

Next Friday, June 14, the stars and cars of the Valenti Modified Racing Series will make their first of two ground-pounding stops this summer at Claremont Motorsports Park. The New England Antique Racers will also be in action, along with five divisions of CMP weekly racing competition.

JUNE 7 FEATURE FINISHES:

Field Day for Women to Be Held at Owl Brook Hunter Education Center

HOLDERNESS, NH – The New Hampshire Fish and Game Department is holding a Hunter Education field day for women on Sunday, July 14, from 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. at the Owl Brook Hunter Education Center in Holderness, NH. Participants must first register for and complete the online Hunter Education course at: <https://www.huntercourse.com/usa/newhampshire>. Once students pass the online exam, they will receive a voucher with a link to register for the field day.

Note: The cost of the online exam is $29.99, which you only pay once you pass.

Attendees will learn about hunting laws and regulations, firearms handling and nomenclature, map and compass skills, and will participate in a live-firing activity. At the end of the field day, participants will be required to pass a written exam in addition to a practical field test before being awarded a certificate of completion necessary for the purchase of a hunting license.

This event will take place rain or shine. Participants should come prepared for the weather and bring a bag lunch.

For more information about this field day opportunity, please contact Tom Flynn or Eric Geib at the Owl Brook Hunter Education Center at (603) 536-3954.

One-Hitter Leads Fisher Cats to 2-0 Win on Sunday

MANCHESTER, NH— Nate Pearson and Willy Ortiz combined for a one-hitter as the New Hampshire Fisher Cats (Toronto Blue Jays Double-A affiliate) shut out the Richmond Flying Squirrels (San Francisco Giants) 2-0 on Sunday afternoon at Delta Dental Stadium.

New Hampshire (28-32) pitchers faced the minimum 27 batters, allowing only an infield single by Johneshwy Fargas in the top of the fourth inning. He was erased on an attempted stolen base. Jacob Heyward reached on an error in the fifth, but was also thrown out by catcher Riley Adams.

Pearson, the top pitching prospect in the Blue Jays organization, did not a walk batter and struck out three in his five innings.

Ortiz (W, 2-3) retired all twelve batters he faced with three strikeouts in four innings of perfect relief.

The Fisher Cats broke through for two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning. Forrest Wall started the rally with a single and Vinny Capra followed with a base hit. After the next two batters were retired, Chad Spanberger doubled off the right field wall to score both runners.

Brandon Beachy (L, 1-2) took the loss for Richmond (22-38).

After Monday's off day, the Fisher Cats open a six-game road trip on Tuesday night in Bowie, Maryland. Game time is 6:35 p.m. New Hampshire will return to Delta Dental Stadium on Tuesday, June 18 to complete the first portion of the split-season against the Binghamton Rumble Ponies. For tickets and information, visit nhfishercats.com.

Get Your Hike Safe Card

CONCORD, NH — As you make plans throughout the year, to get outside to hike, bike, kayak, or climb, be sure you have your voluntary Hike Safe card for 2019. Card sales help ensure that New Hampshire Fish and Game Conservation Officers, trained in wilderness rescue, are ready to come to your aid if the unexpected happens.

The 2019 Hike Safe cards cost $25 for an individual, or $35 for a family, and are good for the calendar year ending December 31, 2019. The price is the same for residents and non-residents. You can also purchase the card for someone else — they make a great gift for any adventurer.

Cards can be purchased online or by mail at www.wildnh.com/safe; they are also sold at New Hampshire Fish and Game Department Headquarters, 11 Hazen Drive, in Concord.

Inspiration

By Priscilla Hull

Numbers are significant and 148 years is a long time! That is how many years the Stevens High School Alumni Association has been in existence! I am proud to live in the old timey home town of Claremont which is the home of the oldest continuously running alumni association in the country. I remember 40 years ago when we moved to Claremont and June came around. People started talking about the Alumni Parade, and yes, I thought that I'd take my kids, grade school and middle school ages, to the parade. Their grandmas and the elderly ladies next door went with us. They said get there early and we did get there about 45 minutes before parade time. We set up chairs in a wide grassy spot on Broad Street before the park entrance.

I was amazed at the numbers already there and I thought that this is a big deal.

Those 40 years have sped quickly by and I'm still going to parades and watching with amazement at the creativity of the floats. Now, my youngest just celebrated her 30th anniversary! Yes, the Dunkin Donuts float. That little guy riding, smiling and happy to be a part is my grandson!

We live in a city of extreme creativity. The Campbells Soup float was fantastic. Loved the Owl and the Tootsie Pop and the Cardinals on the Takes a Lickin and Keeps on Tickin. Don't forget Toys R Us and many more. (I might have missed some, but every year it is overwhelming!)

For a few years now I've attended the banquet as a guest to give the invocation and benediction! It is an honor because I get to see thousands of dollars given away to well deserving students who have worked hard for these honors. It's not just a parade and barbecued chicken, it is a celebration of talent and success!

No wonder it is always a beautiful day! Good things happening to good people. This parade, celebration, banquet and the scholarships given to deserving students all work together to make us proud to be a part of this celebration. "Glory to Stevens!" Glory to Claremont! Keep up the good work! Recognize the achievements. May the friendly competition last another 148 years!

May our endeavors be successful. Yes, may we be successful.

Rural Outright Announces Rural PRIDE Sponsors

CLAREMONT, NH—Rural Outright, a community program of TLC Family Resource Center, presents Rural PRIDE 2019 on Saturday, June 15, from Noon to 3:00 p.m., at Barnes Park in Claremont — rain or shine. The event is free, family-friendly and open to the public. Rural PRIDE would not be possible without the support of sponsors and community partners: Lucky's Coffee Garage, Mascoma Bank, Claremont Savings Bank, Hypertherm HOPE Foundation, Valley Regional Healthcare, PFLAG New Hampshire, Sugar River Bank, and The Taverne.

"The support from community partners and sponsors make it possible for us to bring a celebration of the LGBTQ+ community to Claremont and share in the diversity that makes our community stronger," said Matt Mooshian, Chair of Rural Outright. "We had a fantastic time last year and we hope that this year will be even better."

TLC Executive Director Maggie Monroe-Cassel sees the event as a way to show the agency's support of families throughout the community.

"TLC Family Resource Center is dedicated to strengthening and supporting ALL families. With Rural Outright as one of our programs, we are reminding the community that families come in many versions," she said. "In addition, we are acutely aware of the risk that LGBTQIA youth experience in schools and in their communities. We want to work to make the community safe for all."

State Rep. Lisa Bunker will be one of several speakers at the event.

Bunker has written stories all her life. She will be bringing her book "Zenobia July" to the event. The book, released earlier this year, is about Zenobia, or Zen — a transgender girl and her struggles to be accepted by her family and to fit in at a new school.

Before setting up shop as a full-time author, Bunker had a 30-year career in non-commercial broadcasting, most recently as Program Director of the community radio station in Portland, ME. Bunker has also lived in New Mexico, southern California, Seattle and the Florida panhandle. She now lives in Exeter with her wife, also an author, and a cat.

In 2018, she was elected to the New Hampshire House of Representatives. She has two grown children. When not writing, Bunker plays piano, practices yoga, plays chess, and studies languages.

For more information about Rural PRIDE 2019, please visit tlcfamilyrc.org/rural-pride.html.

TLC Family Resource Center supports and strengthens all families, children, and youth of Sullivan and Lower Grafton counties with a wide range of free programs, support groups, and education. The Rural Outright program serves LGBTQ+ youth, their families, and allies with peer support groups, educational series, and events throughout the area. For more information, please email

ACLU-NH Offers Free Advancing Civil Liberties Training

LEBANON, NH — The next ACLU of New Hampshire's free Advancing Civil Liberties Training takes place at the Lebanon Public Library, 9 E. Park Street, on Thursday, June 20, from 6:00-7:30pm.

ACLU-NH is building a cadre of activists to advance and defend civil liberties in their local communities and statewide according to Field Organizer Steve Kidder. "A key part of this movement is connecting elected officials with their constituents, including holding those officials accountable for their decisions. 168 new NH State Representatives took office this year -- and most have yet to be engaged by their constituents on civil liberties issues."

Participants in the free 90-minute workshop on Advancing Civil Liberties learn about civil liberties priorities, including ongoing efforts to reform the criminal justice system, stand up for LGBTQ and immigrant communities, and advocate for racial justice. ACLU-NH trainings provide the space to develop community and demonstrate a variety of ways to influence elected officials, so you can start taking action and drive change.

"Folks can stop by the Lebanon Farmers' Market in the park and then stroll right across the street to join us," says Kidder. "No tools or special skills are necessary, but a phone, computer, and friends are always more than welcome."

The Newport Opera House Association Announces Two Upcoming Artistic Opportunities for Young People

NEWPORT, NH—The Newport Opera House Association is pleased to announce two upcoming artistic opportunities for young people: its third annual Summer Drama Camp and its first ever Play Writing Festival to celebrate the anniversary of the rebuilding of the Corbin Covered Bridge.

NOHA's Play Writing Festival will be open to young people in grades four to seven from local communities. "It's a wonderful way for young people to learn about the history of our town, and participate in the arts at the same time," said Amy Bailey, Executive Director of NOHA.

Six winners will be selected; three from students in grades 4 & 5, and three from students in grades 6 & 7. Winning plays will be staged at the Newport Opera House and performed on Friday, October 11. Plays should be approximately 5 pages long and should focus on either the history of the bridge, a personal experience at the bridge, or a fantasy about the bridge. Plays are due by June 30. The Festival is open to young people from all communities.

NOHA is also pleased to present its third annual Summer Drama Camp. Summer Drama Camp gives young people ages 7-14 the chance to put on their own show! This year's show will be The Jungle Book: Kids.

Camp runs from July 29-August 9, weekdays from 10am-4pm. Campers will learn lines, songs, scene structure, build their own simple props and costumes, and play theater games, all while working on team-building skills and improving self-confidence. Camp culminates with two performances for the public on August 9.

Camp costs $100 for the full two weeks. Registration forms are available at www.newportoperahouse.com.

For more information about either of these activities, call the Newport Opera House at 863-2412 or email them at info@newportoperahouse.com.

Joseph C. St. Pierre, 85

Joseph C. St. Pierre, 85, of Maple Avenue in Claremont, NH, passed away on Tuesday, June 4, 2019, following a short and courageous battle with cancer.

He was born on September 21, 1933, in Lewiston, ME; the son of Laura (Paquette) St. Pierre and Alfred St. Pierre, he resided in Claremont for 54 years.

He served in the Air Force until the plane he was in crashed and he suffered a broken back.

Joe graduated from Tufts University and dedicated his life to the education and guidance of the students at Stevens High School and the Middle School for over 45 years. During the 80's, he also served as the Police Commissioner of Claremont.

Surviving members of his family include his wife, Theresa St. Pierre, daughter, Carol Jardine, and his grandson, Marcus Jardine, all of Claremont; his granddaughter, Heather (Jardine) Zarubaiko along with her husband Ted and great grandchildren, Hailey and Riley all of Haverhill, MA; his sister, Dotty Wilson and her husband, Joe and nieces, Debbie and Linda Wilson all of Dallas TX.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at St. Mary Church on Monday, June 10th. Burial followed in St. Mary Cemetery on Plains Road in Claremont.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting that donations be made to St. Mary Church, 32 Pearl Street, Claremont, NH 03743.

Cezira Florence

Our dearest “Sherry” Florence passed away peacefully on June 4th, 2019, at her home in Claremont, NH. She lived a happy, very full and often exciting life with her family and friends. She loved art, fashion, color, cooking, painting, reading, traveling, and most of all talking and listening to everyone.

She was surrounded by a room full of her family and loved ones from near and far, including her two cats.

She is survived by her four children and their spouses, Jolene & Rodney Forsyth, Joseph & Daniele Florence, Marisa Florence & Jeff Mayo & Brandy Florence.

Her grandchildren are Samira Florence, Tony Sbrocca, Samantha Florence, Sophie Florence, Cezira King, and Tyler Dillehay. Her great grandchildren are Perry Smith, Olivia Florence, Mason Sbrocca, Kobie Curtis, and Macie King. She is survived by her siblings Dolores Elam, Patricia Homon, Raymond Dellasanta, and Audrey Batchelder.

Sherry was predeceased by her husband, Richard Florence & parents Eva & Everisto Dellasanta.

As her yearbook stated in 1956, “Her friends are many, good and true; But always, she has room for you.” Forever true, Know that she will always be with each and every one of you.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Winchendon, MA, on Monday June 10th. Burial followed at Calvary Cemetery in Winchendon, MA.

The Stringer Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Laura C. Chamberlain, 93

Laura C. Chamberlain, 93, of Sullivan Street in Claremont, NH, died Sunday (June 2, 2019) at Valley Regional Hospital in Claremont, NH, following a period of failing health.

She was born in Attleboro, MA, on September 11, 1925, the daughter of Amos F. and Ruth (Langille) Wilson and had been a long-time Claremont resident. Laura had been employed by Tambrands in Claremont.

“Eyes love dark green. So do I.”

-Dr. Sam Giveen

Dark green, leafy veggies like spinach, collard greens and kale are good for your eyes. Eat a diet rich in dark, leafy greens, and it can go a long way toward preventing macular degeneration. Call it tasty preventive medicine. Just start early. Eat your dark greens.

DOCTOR SAM'S
EYE CARE

Family Movie Night Review: The Secret Life of Pets 2

By Bernadette O'Leary

For those wondering what our pets do when we're away from the home, our friends Max, Duke, Gidget, Chloe, Pops and Snowball are back to tell us.

In this triple storyline, our friends each set out on separate adventures. Max and Duke take a trip to the country, where they meet Rooster, a tough country dog devoted to watching over his territory. While they are away, Gidget is in charge of watching Max's favorite toy in his absence, only to face her own quest when she loses it and has to retrieve it in a most unexpected way. Finally, Snowball is enlisted by a dog named Daisy to help rescue an unexpected animal in danger. The three groups of friends carry out their journeys until all three merge into one grand, epic finale.

The Secret Life of Pets 2 was great fun for the whole family. Even my 18-year-old daughter who didn't really want to see it enjoyed it. Sporting adventure and fantastic humor, it made for an enjoyable family time for us all.

The Secret Life of Pets 2 receives an emphatic 4.5 Crosses, losing half a Cross for questionable language in a couple of parts for those among us who are more conservative in what we want our children to see in movies.

Despite that concern, this film is tremendously entertaining, and I highly recommend it to viewers of all ages. I would even go as far as to say that it is worth paying to see at the theaters instead of waiting for it to be released on video. So, this week, take family movie night out of the living room and see The Secret Life of Pets 2 with your family. If you're like me and don't like going to the theater, make it a part of your family movie night at home once it is released on video. Either way, you'll be glad you did.

Clear skies made for some easy star gazing last week, or in this case, moon gazing.
